Troy Selvaratnam, being duly sworn, deposes and states:

1. On May 7, 2013, I served Defendant I.C.S. International Custody System Inc. ("ICS"), by express delivery service, true and correct copies of the Order to Show Cause for Default Judgment, dated May 7, 2013, Affidavit of Troy Selvaratnam for Judgment by Default, dated May 7, 2013, and Motion to Withdraw Motion for a Default Judgment, dated May 7, 2013, in the above captioned action, at the last known business address of Defendant, in the manner so indicated:

BY FEDEX

INTERNATIONAL CUSTODY SYSTEM INC.
501 Madison Avenue, Suite 201
New York, NY 10022
Tel: 212-759-8300

3. On May 7, 2013, I deposited copies of the above-referenced documents in a sealed, properly addressed envelope into the custody of express delivery service Federal Express for priority delivery, prior to the latest time designated by the delivery service for priority delivery, addressed to the above-referenced addressee.

4. On May 8, 2013, Federal Express contacted me to inform me that when they tried to deliver the envelope at the above-indicated address, they were informed that ICS had closed its office, notwithstanding the fact that the New York State Division of Corporations still lists that address as ICS's registered address and that on February 11, 2013, Mr. Alejandro Gil accepted service of the Summons and Complaint in this action on behalf of ICS at that address.

5. On May 8, 2013, I re-deposited copies of the above-referenced documents in a sealed, properly addressed envelope into the custody of express delivery service Federal Express for priority delivery, prior to the latest time designated by the delivery service for priority delivery, addressed to ICS at the above-indicated address, but this time to Mr. Alejandro Gil's attention. Federal Express has confirmed that the envelope was delivered to the above-indicated address.
